

NEWS RELEASE

Police Recover Stolen Bouncy Castle

Police in North Wales have recovered stolen property including a bouncy castle.

In a statement on their web site Colwyn Bay Police say “Have you been the victim of a shed burglary in the last 12 months?

Police are trying to trace the owners of property recovered, following the arrest of a prolific offender.

Amongst the property recovered is a bouncy castle with an electric generator, a golf caddy and clubs, a bike, a surf board, decorator's tools and various other items.

If you have been subjected to a shed break in during the past 12 months contact Colwyn Bay Police Station on Rhiw Road to book an appointment to view and hopefully identify the property.”

If you think the property may be yours or you may know who this may belong to then contact Colwyn Bay Police on 0845 607 1002

Source: Inflated News / Colwyn Bay Police

Released: 22nd March 2008